The years catch up to WLSW oldies DJs

By Adrian McCoy

Two local oldies DJs — Charlie Apple and Jeff Allen — are celebrating anniversaries of long on-air careers with the "Radio Birthday Bash," an evening of live oldies music and entertainment. Apple has been on commercial radio for 36 years, Allen for 30. Both are heard on WLSW-FM (103.9) in Scottsdale, Ariz. Apple's show airs from 6 a.m. to noon on Saturdays, followed by Apple from noon to 6 p.m.

Allen went on the air with "Olde Rock Shoppe" — a show that recreated the sound of '50s and '60s radio — on the former WYDD-FM in October 1972. It later aired on WKPA-AM, moving to WLSW in 1992.

Apple has worked at numerous stations over the past 36 years, including WDUQ-FM, the former WPSL-AM in Monroeville, WKPA and WLSW.

"Radio Birthday Bash" is set for Saturday at the Palace Inn in Monroeville from 7:30 to midnight; doors open at 6:30 p.m. Entertainment is by Pure Gold, Jimmy Beaumont and the Skyliners and Jimmy Ross and the Jagers. Cost is $25. Information: 724-836-3670.

DUQ gets grant

The National Endowment for the Arts has given WDUQ-FM (90.5) a grant to produce a radio series devoted to the National Folk Festival.

The series will be hosted by Joe Wilson, director of the National Council for the Traditional Arts, and will feature performances from past festivals. It's scheduled for national distribution next year.

Discussing Pinochet

Pedro Alejandro Matta, a former political prisoner in Chile and author of "A Walk Through a 20th Century Torture Center," will be the guest on this week's "Latin American Radio Magazine." Matta will talk about human rights abuses under the Augusto Pinochet regime at 6 p.m. tomorrow on WRCT-FM (88.3).

The weekly "Latin American Radio Magazine" is one of the few Spanish-language programs on the air in the area. It's hosted by Martha Mantilla, who also hosts a program on WEDO-AM (810) Sundays from 5 to 6 p.m.

Around the dial

The 14th edition of the WDUQ-FM (102.5) best of CD is out. "Doublewide" is a two-volume set, featuring bits from the Jim Krenn/Randy Baumann morning show. It's available at FYE Music Stores and online at www.fye.com. A portion of the sales will benefit local charities. ... Dave LaBrozzi has been named regional vice president of programming for Pittsburgh, Johnstown and Wheeling for Clear Channel Radio. LaBrozzi has been operations manager of WWSW-FM (94.5) and WJZZ-FM (104.7) since 2001.

Faded stars may get 'Surreal'

Picture this: "Webster" star Emmanuel Lewis cooks breakfast for Motley Crue rocker Vince Neil as Corey Feldman and M.C. Hammer argue over whose career is now the biggest joke.

It could happen on a new reality series in the works at The WB. "The Surreal Life" will feature well-known B-list celebrities living and working together in a San Fernando Valley house. Like MTV's "The Real World," it will be captured by cameras. The WB has not set an air date for "The Surreal Life." (Zap2it.com)

NBC catches Star

NBC has ordered an hour-long drama-comedy pilot from "Sex and the City" creator Darren Star and writer Jeff Rake. The series, about a female New York matrimonial lawyer who moonlights as a matchmaker, is targeted for fall 2003.

Star's next project for HBO: a soap titled "Pacific Palisades." (Gail Shister, Knight Ridder Newspapers)
